A daughter was recently born to Mr. and Mrs. Linnebury of Sioux City. Mrs. Linnebury was formerly Miss Laura Easley and made this city her home.

The weather continues to be all that could be desired. The grass has grown about an inch a day during the past two days under the influence of the sun's rays.

Union services, to which everybody is welcome, will be held at the Y. M. C. L. rooms next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Dan B. Lee will address the meeting.

Miss Irene Dexter entertained a few friends last evening in honor of her schoolmate, Miss Nellie Little of South Dakota. A very enjoyable evening was passed by these present.

The work of completing the Auditorium was resumed this morning and it will probably be completed at once. It is understood that the building will be covered with a tin roof.

A. J. Rosinbaum has moved his family and household goods to Omaha and H. E. Austin is today moving his family into the house vacated by him on South Fourth street, from Edgewater, Park addition.

Beginning with next Sunday, the 22nd, train Nos. 9, 10, 11 and 12, over the C. St. P. M. & O. road, will run every day. Two of them have heretofore run on Sundays, but hereafter all four will be run on that day.

Artichokes are hardy and will stand this climate, remaining out of doors all winter without injury. It is claimed that one acre of artichokes will produce more fat hogs than four acres of corn, even in the most prolific seasons.

The special election held at Madison Tuesday for the purpose of voting bonds in the sum of $12,350 for the erection of a new school house in that district in place of one that had become unsafe was carried almost unanimously in favor of the bonds, the vote being 253 for to 28 against the proposition.

Frank Riley, the Omaha liquor man, was up before police court again this morning on the charge of being drunk and disorderly. The fine assessed against him was $5 and costs, amounting to a total of $11.10. The prisoner was advised by the judge to get out of town and about his business and promised to take the advice.

Wayne Republican: The court house will have new furniture. The commissioners on Friday concluded negotiations with an outfitting establishment who will put in chairs, desks, tables and in fact everything needed to furnish the building complete in every respect, except fixtures for the different vaults. The contract price all set up in the house is $3,425. We are assured that the furniture purchased is such as will be satisfactory to the taxpayers and the board believes that they have purchased it at a very reasonable price. It is to be here and placed in the building in 90 days.

The trial of the stock yards case proceeds without any particularly new features. The ground covered in the preliminary hearing is being gone over again. The defense examined its witnesses yesterday afternoon and several this morning. It was expected that argument would be held this afternoon and the case will be submitted to the jury this evening or tomorrow morning. At this time there are many who believe that the trial will result in a conviction of several of the defendants, but it is understood if that is the outcome their cases will be appealed to the supreme court.

Morning lodge No. 30, Knights of Pythias, has received a letter from Virginia Grove lodge No. 302, of Morning Sun, Iowa, through its keeper, of records and seal, Guy J. Tomlinson, thanking them for their care of O. F. Butler, who recently died here. The letter says: "Although we have never had the pleasure of personal acquaintance with any of your members, we feel that we are brothers and that a new tie binds us on account of the kindness with which you treated our late brother, O. F. Butler. Such actions give fuller meaning to our motto of 'friendship' and illustrate the true, the Pythian meaning of that term. We feel that you have exemplified the practice of fraternity and it needs no commendation from us, but we merely desire to let you know how highly your knightly courtesy is esteemed by us."

New York World: A courtship tax imposed by a church here is making the young men poor and the church rich. The church some time ago, in order to raise money with which to buy an organ, fixed upon the idea of levying a 10 cent tax for every visit paid by a youth upon a woman member of the church. The girls made a list of their callers and the amounts due were gathered by a tax collector, who gave receipts for them. The congregation now wants to build a new church and it is proposed that the tax be reimposed with additions. A tariff has been made out by a committee, but it has not been adopted. Here is some of it: One call, evening, 10 cents; one call, 10 a. m. to 2 p. m., 3 cents; one call, 2 p. m. to 6 p. m., 5 cents; hand squeeze, 16 cents; invitation to tea, 31 cents; buggy ride, 12 cents; kisses in the presence of the girl's mother, per dozen, 17 cents; kisses in mother's absence not allowed; exchange of photographs, 42 cents; acceptance of proposals, $1.98; fixing the happy day, 2 cents; on each pound of candy presented, 1 cent. It is proposed that young men who have paid a tax shall receive stamps which they shall paste on their shirt fronts. An inspector will call at the houses of eligible girls to see if visiting suitors are all properly stamped and to collect all deficiencies. He will carry a bell punch.
